

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

G4S TECHNOLOGY LLC,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Defendant-Appellee.

No. 14-5078

CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PLAINTIFF-APPELLANT'S INITIAL BRIEF

Pursuant to Federal Circuit Rule 26(b), Plaintiff-Appellant G4S Technology LLC, by and through its undersigned counsel of record, hereby moves the Court for a 14-day extension of the deadline for filing its initial brief from June 30, 2014 to July 14, 2014. The relief requested is for good cause and will not result in undue delay in the administration of justice. In support thereof, Plaintiff-Appellant states as follows.

The Notice of Appeal was filed in this case on April 10, 2014, but the case was not docketed until April 29, 2014. Based on the date of docketing, the due date for Plaintiff-Appellant's initial brief falls during counsel's previously scheduled vacation. Counsel had hoped to be in a position to file Plaintiff-Appellant's initial brief several days before the June 30th deadline (prior to leaving for vacation), but counsel's current workload is not likely to allow for early filing. Therefore, Plaintiff-Appellant requests a 14-day extension of the deadline for filing its initial brief from June 30, 2014 to July 14, 2014. The Government's counsel consents to the requested extension. This is the first extension sought by Plaintiff-Appellant in this appeal.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff-Appellant respectfully moves the Court to extend the deadline for filing its initial brief to July 14, 2014.

Dated: June 6, 2014

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Lewis S. Wiener
